SWOT Analysis

Strengths	Weaknesses
• Soft Wheat Milling • Southern Baking Heritage • Strong Sales and Sr. Management Team • Experienced, Stable Work Force • Transportation advantage to service Southeast & Mid-Atlantic customers	• No flexible organic/gluten free production • Product line becoming stale & irrelevant • Lack of MIS, SOP's, & internal metrics • Poor Communication & Accountability • Aging Workforce, Skilled Talent Void • Limited QA and R&D capabilities • Weak Manufacturing & Supply Chain SOP's
Opportunities	Threats
• Growing Demand for Regional Foods • Improving Competitive Landscape • Renewed interest in specialty baking • Consumer need gaps for more convenient, healthier, & indulgent baking products • Channel & geographic distribution options	• Single Facility – Catastrophic Event • Continued Retailer Consolidation • Private Label Growth • Competitive Response to Market Expansion • Negative perception of baked products due to gluten and diabetes concerns

Category Growth Only Sustained & Maximized when PL + Brands mutually Promote & Grow

Best Practices for Center Aisle & Impulse Retail Brand Growth*

- 10% to 20% Price gaps everyday (more comparable, lower the gap)
- 20% to 25% Retail Brand Promoted Price gaps
- Other Brands within 3% to 5 % of Retail Brands during Regional / National Brand Promo
- Both are displayed & featured throughout year—not at same time
- Innovative Items Intro that:

Are Unique
Add $'s to category with trade- ups or new Trials
Attract New Consumers to Category
Solve for Concern or Better Solution

- Max's Funding Programs

Renwood Mills

Publix continues to benefit from Renwood's Proficient Provision
Of Preferred SOUTHERN PROFILES

What

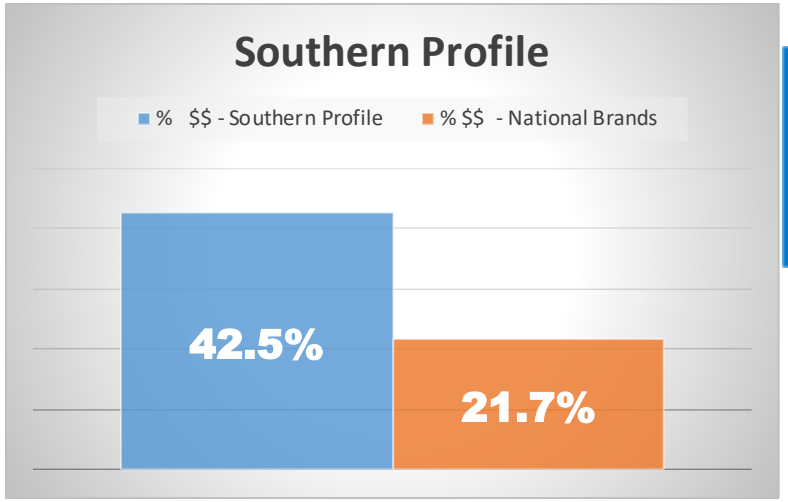

- Higher Yields
- Whiter, less ash, less protein
- Fluffier Biscuits and cakes, Flakier Pie Crusts and Pastries
- Melting Mouth-feel texture
- Higher moisture absorbion from environment

How

- Incremental Cleaning steps
- Added "Breaks" in Milling Process
- Higher levels of Carolina grown soft red winter wheat
- Expertise in soft wheat milling
- Reflects Mill personality from evolution in equipment and Mill
- Less De-Germing, more Flavor

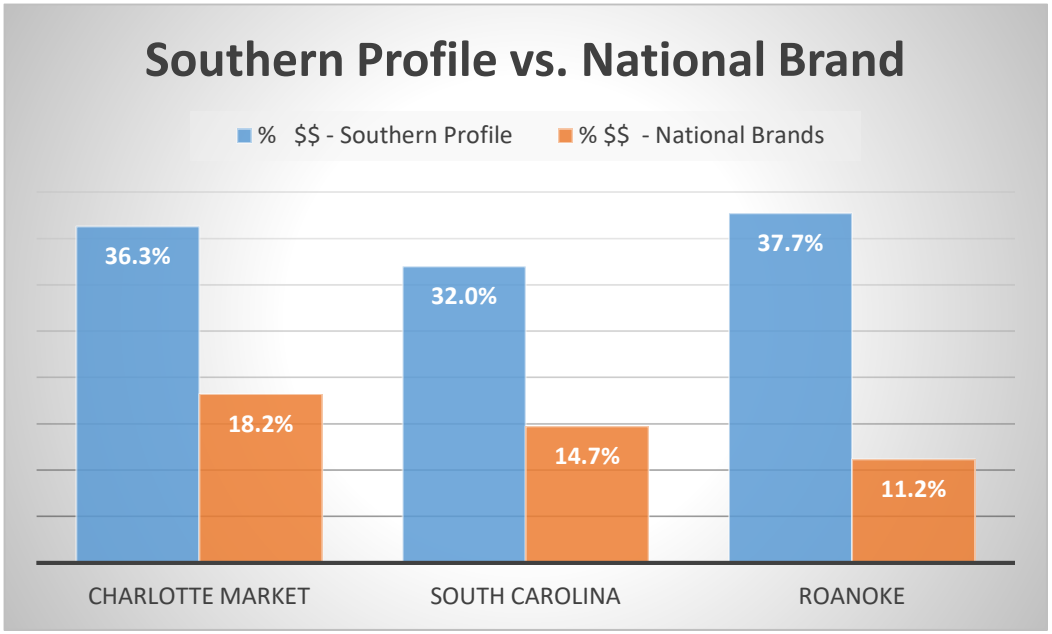

Renwood Mills

Renwood Supplies Preferred Southern Profiles that prove over multiple years and multiple markets to Consistently outperform Hard Wheat blends and fewer processing steps

Overall the Southern Profile is preferred 2x more than hard Wheat in Branded and Private in Southeast U.S.

Throughout the Southeast, Soft red winter wheat is the preferred flour in each Southern Market over hard wheats

Some Items / Moves / Mythbusters

We are growing, Regional items of strength, not just Regional

- Items to Delete in market:
- Daily Bread , Joy Brands, Bisquick sku's
- Multiple low price points pulling down category-mixes duplicates
- Duplications: House Autry
